

Table of Contents

Table of Contents

Overview	6
1. Background ...	8
2. Objectives	8
3. Program Components	9
4. Program Steps.....	10
5. Using This Reference Guide	10
Code of Ethics	11
1. Preamble	13
2. Principles	13
Standards of Practice	15
1. Introduction ...	17
2. Guiding Principles.....	18
3. Standards of Practice.....	19
Discipline Specific Competencies	23
1. Introduction	25
1.1 Before you begin.....	26
1.2 Why should you care?.....	26
1.3 What are discipline specific competencies?.....	27
1.4 How was the discipline specific competencies section developed?	28
1.5 How do you read a competency statement?.....	29
1.6 When and how do these competencies apply to you?	30
1.7 What should you do with these competencies?.....	33
2. Discipline Specific Competency Tables.....	34
T.1 Public Health Sciences	34
T.2 Assessment and Analysis	36
T.3 Policy Program Planning, Implementation, and Evaluation	38
T.4 Partnerships, Collaboration, and Advocacy	40
T.5 Diversity and Inclusiveness.....	41
T.6 Communication	42
T.7 Leadership	44
T.8 Legal and Regulatory.....	46

Professional Development Model	47
1. Overview	49
2. The Council of Professional Experience	52
3. Verifying Professional Development Activities	53
4. Minimum Requirements	55
5. Other Professional Development Activities	58
6. Professional Development Model Summary	59
7. Carry-Over of Professional Development Hours	60
8. Part Time Employment or Unemployment	60
9. Application	60
10. Exemption from the Program	60
11. Resuming Active Practice	61
12. Role of the Employer	61
13. Consequences of Non-Compliance	62
14. Further Information	62
Appendices	63
Appendix A – Glossary	65
Appendix B – References	76
Appendix C – Environmental Public Health Practice Areas	78
Appendix D – Public Health Agency of Canada Core Competencies for Public Health Release: 1.0	82
Appendix E – Examples of Discipline Specific Competencies	86
Appendix F – CPHI(C)	90
Appendix G – Detailed Activity Record	91
Appendix H – Application for Approval of Professional Development Hours	92

